

Joy Aldridge - Joy, currently an instructor for Compass Prep going on 8 years, now also serving as a Board member, was born in NY, raised in SC, and lived in Germany for almost 9 years. She homeschooled her 3 children, now grown, while living in Germany and has tutored and taught in private and public schools. She has a passion for helping students to feel successful in learning and loved by their Creator. Joy holds a degree in Education, German studies, and has been trained in various science coastal education programs. Science is God's amazing handiwork revealed to us. She enjoys family, travel, photography, speaking German, creating jewelry, and serving Jesus. She also helps with the family photo business. Whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God. 1 Corinthians 10:31b